Mr. Jan de Graaff
Oregon Bulb Farms,
Sandy, Oregon

Dear Mr. de Graaff:

There is a likelihood that the National Museum Picture Gallery may want some forced bulbs for Dumbarton Oaks in Washington and I should guess the best things to get for that purpose would be some of the Whopping big trumpets. Have you these still in stock in a fair amount, and will you kindly let me know so that if I get the word to go ahead on the order I can send it to you at once?

Yours very truly,

BEATRIX FARRAND
