1537 28th Street,
Washington, 7, D. C.

Dear Miss Jones:

Thank you for your letter of July 26th with the enclosed postcard list which Mrs. Bliss kindly returned to me, together with the letter from Mr. Van Rensselaer. Please tell Mrs. Bliss that I have found in my folders here the Stewart photograph of the "hopeless looking slope of red clay" and am sending it to Bryce today for reproduction for the record books.

With many thanks, I am,

Yours very truly,
