Dearest Mildred.

Since we got home two weeks ago - Max has not been well, a heavy cold - & perhaps a little flu - have seemed to pull him down & he fears a recurrence of his former trouble - - so he is to-day writing Dr. Geo. Smith of Boston to try & get him a room at Phillips House so that he can be looked over & under the treatment of a man he knows & trusts. We shall hear from Smith in a few days & you'll have word of what we do.

Of course I'm hoping nothing will interfere with the lecture at D. O. on the 15 - & see no reason now to think it might. But will keep you in farmid.

Please say wothin' to nobody untill we know - bech you are near, & most dear wso I'm just telling you of our probable excursion to Boston -

It is as cold as Greenland
here, bech its home -

Yours ever fond.

Trix.
