Dear Miss Sweeney:

The enclosed letter (as you probably know) was written in Mrs. Farrand's handwriting and sent to me here to type and sign.

When you are finished with our book list will you please return it to me, it is the only one I have.

Dear Miss Sweeney:

Thanks you for your letter of the 13th. The list which I sent included the "rare" books which Mrs. Farrand thought Mrs. Bliss would be interested in for Dumbarton. It was not our complete book list - which I will send you if you want it. We are beginning to have spring weather here and look forward to warmer days.

Yours sincerely,

Isabelle M. Storer
