

April 7, 1947

Dear Mrs. Farrand,

Thank you so much for your letters of March 31st and April 4th, which I hope you will forgive me for not answering in detail.

At the next meeting of the Administrative Committee I shall report to them of your change in status, and I know that you will receive formal letters to this effect. Just when this will be, I do not know, as I doubt whether there will be a meeting of the Committee before I sail for Europe and as it is, obviously, a matter which I wish to present myself, I doubt whether the official letter will reach you before sometime in the autumn. I am sure that this will not worry you!

I am extremely sorry but I will not be able to come up to Boston. However, I trust Mr. Patterson, when he arrives here on Monday, the fourteenth, will bring with him many messages from you, both personal ones, as well as ones which will help us during his stay here.

Ever yours affectionately,

Mrs. Beatrix Farrand
